

Artwork Styles and Rules

Please note that each order can take more or less time depending on what you order.

Rules

Here you'll be able to know all of my rules, do's and don'ts as well as my payment information.

Pixel Art

Pixel art style usually takes more time. You may ask for animations if wanted but please ask first as I only do a selected type of animations.

Character Design

Emotes

Character design refers to game characters, v-tuber concept art, etc. No animations.

Emotes refer to Discord and Twitch emotes. No animations at the moment.

Order delivering process

Depending on the style and what you asked for I may take between a week or two. I'll update you all the time and let you know if there's any inconvenience.

START-UP

REFERENCES AND PRINCING

Starting from here i'll ask you to send all possible references so we can see what i'm able to do and the cost of it.

PHASE 2

SKETCHING

In this phase you'll be allowed to ask for as many changes as you wish. Once you finally confirm the sketch there will be no more changes aside from colors.

PHASE 3

LINEART AND COLORING

In this phase i'll be sending you various wips and changing the colors or tones as you wish. Here is where you'll also check on the animations you wanted.
